ITEM 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

The Registrant is incorporated under the laws of the State of Georgia. The articles of incorporation and bylaws of the Registrant provide that the Registrant shall indemnify its directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by the Georgia Business Corporation Code.

Subsection (a) of Section 14-2-851 of the Georgia Business Corporation Code provides that a corporation may indemnify or obligate itself to indemnify an individual made a party to a proceeding because he or she is or was a director against liability incurred in the proceeding if: (1) such individual conducted himself or herself in good faith; and (2) such individual reasonably believed: (A) in the case of conduct in his or her official capacity, that such conduct was in the best interests of the corporation; (B) in all other cases, that such conduct was at least not opposed to the best interests of the corporation; and (C) in the case of any criminal proceeding, that the individual had no reasonable cause to believe such conduct was unlawful. Subsection (d) of Section 14-2-851 of the Georgia Business Corporation Code provides that a corporation may not indemnify a director: (1) in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation, except for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding if it is determined that the director has met the relevant standard of conduct; or (2) or in connection with any proceeding with respect to conduct for which he or she was adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by him or her, whether or not involving action in his or her official capacity. Notwithstanding the foregoing, pursuant to Section 14-2-854, a court shall order a corporation to indemnify or give an advance for expenses to a director if such court determines the director is entitled to indemnification under Section 14-2-854 or if it determines that in view of all relevant circumstances, it is fair and reasonable, even if the director has not met the standard of conduct set forth in subsections (a) and (b) of Section 14-2-851 of the Georgia Business Corporation Code or was adjudged liable in a proceeding referred to in subsection (d) of Section 14-2-851 of the Georgia Business Corporation Code.

Section 14-2-852 of the Georgia Business Corporation Code provides that a corporation shall indemnify a director who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which the director was a party because he or she was a director of the corporation against reasonable expenses incurred by the director in connection with the proceeding.

Subsection (c) of Section 14-2-857 of the Georgia Business Corporation Code provides that an officer of the corporation who is not a director is entitled to mandatory indemnification under Section 14-2-852 and may apply to a court under Section 14-2-854 for indemnification or advances for expenses, in each case to the same extent to which a director may be entitled to indemnification or advances for expenses under those provisions. In addition, subsection (d) of Section 14-2-857 provides that a corporation may also indemnify and advance expenses to an employee or agent who is not a director to the extent, consistent with public policy, that may be provided by its articles of incorporation, bylaws, action of its board of directors or contract.

As permitted by the Georgia Business Corporation Code, Article XII of the Registrants' Articles of Incorporation provides that a director shall not be personally liable to the Registrant or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of duty of care or other duty as a director, except that such provision shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director (a) for any appropriation, in violation of his or her duties, of any business opportunity of the Registrant, (b) for any acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (c) for the director's personal liability for the improper portion of any distribution by the registrant (as measured against the solvency of the registrant) approved by the director; provided that the director violates his or her duties of good faith or care, or (d) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. The Articles of Incorporation of the Registrant further provide that if the Georgia Business Corporation Code is amended to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the Registrant shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Georgia Business Corporation Code, as so amended. Article XII of the Registrant's articles of incorporation also provides that neither the amendment or repeal of such Article XII nor the adoption of any provision of the Registrant's articles of incorporation inconsistent with such Article XII shall eliminate or adversely affect any right of protection of a director of the Registrant existing immediately prior to such amendment, repeal or adoption.

Under Article VI of the Registrant's bylaws, the registrant is required to indemnify each person who is now, has been, or who will hereafter become a director or officer of the Registrant, whether or not then in office. The Registrant is required to indemnify any such director or officer against all costs and expenses reasonably incurred by or imposed upon him or her in connection with or resulting from any demand, action, suit or proceedings or threat thereof, to which he or she may be a party as a result or by reason of his being or having been a director or officer of the Registrant or of any other corporation which he serves as director or officer at the request of the Registrant, except in relation to matters as to which a recovery shall be had against him or penalty imposed upon him by reason of his having been finally adjudged in such action, suit or proceedings to have been derelict in the performance of his duties as such director or officer. The foregoing right to indemnity includes reimbursement of the amounts and expenses paid in settling any such demand, suit or proceedings or threat thereof when settling the same appears to the board of directors or executive committee of the registrant to be in the best interests of the Registrant, and is not exclusive of other rights to which such director or officer may be entitled as a matter of law.

The Registrant's directors and executive officers are insured against damages from actions and claims incurred in the course of performing duties, and the Registrant is insured against expenses incurred in defending lawsuits arising from certain alleged acts against directors and executive officers.
